About CoroAllegro

CoroAllegro is an ensemble of dedicated, all-volunteer choral singers devoted to the performance of a wide variety of fine choral literature, with particular emphasis on less frequently performed works. Under the direction of Jeffrey Dokken, CoroAllegro sings in concert halls, schools and community facilities throughout Delaware and its surrounding states.

We place special emphasis on attention to artistic excellence, collaborations with the highest level of musicians, performance in acoustically and physically beautiful venues, and accessibility to a wide range of audience members.

Over the past three years, we have partnered with local Wilmington string quartets, pianists, and vocalists. We have performed with world-renowned Russian pianist Sofya Gulyak and Ecuadorian violinist Jorge Saade. We hosted our first fundraising recital featuring pianist Juan Carlos Escudero. The entire choir traveled to Alexandria, Virginia to perform with the Symphony Orchestra of Northern Virginia. Our performance locations have included the Wilmington Drama League, the studios of Opera Delaware, The Baby Grand, Immanuel Church Highlands, Smyrna Opera House, Bethany Beach, the George Washington Masonic Memorial Theatre in Alexandria, Virginia, and others. We have performed concerts with repertoire ranging from classical to contemporary choral music, from Bach to Broadway, and premiered a commissioned work for chorus and symphony. During the summer of 2018, we performed a benefit concert of Broadway hits past and present in Bethany Beach and raised $1750 for Operation SEAS the Day, an organization that supports wounded veterans and their families.

About our Artistic Director, Jeffrey Dokken

Over the past decade, Dokken has performed all across the United States in some of America's greatest venues, including The Kennedy Center, Carnegie Hall, and many more; internationally, he's performed at Teatro Sanchez Aguilar, The Pedro Calmon Theater, Giovanni Battista Martini Hall, Teatro Centro Civico Eloy Alfaro, Pumapungo Theater, and Teatro Bolivar. From 2012-2014, Maestro Dokken had the distinct honor of conducting at the White House in Washington D.C. as part of the "Holidays at the White House".

In addition to his role with CoroAllegro, Maestro Dokken is the Music Director and Conductor of the Symphony Orchestra of Northern Virginia, and Artistic Director and Conductor of the Rome Symphony Orchestra. Dokken has recently been guest conductor with the Orquestra Sinfonica do Teatro Nacional Claudio Santoro, Orquestra Sinfonica de Guayaquil, Loja Symphony Orchestra, Senzaspine Orchestra, Orquestra Sinfonica de Cuenca, Opera Guild of Northern Virginia, American University, The Washington Men's Camerata, and The Reformation Festival Choir. In 2013 and 2014, Maestro Dokken conducted a combined choir and orchestra of 250 voices in a performance of Handel's "Messiah" at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

2018-2019 Concert Season

All performances conducted by CoroAllegro Artistic Director, Jeffrey Dokken

Saturday, November 17, at 7:30 p.m.
Music School of Delaware, Wilmington

Music, She Wrote

CoroAllegro will celebrate the amazing and under-appreciated contribution female composers have made to the choral music canon. We will feature contemporary composers such as Jenni Brandon, Abbie Betinis, and Elizabeth Alexander, pioneers like Alice Parker, Natalie Sleeth, and Lili Boulanger, and ground-breaking early composers Vittoria Aleotti and Hildegard Von Bingen. We will demonstrate the incredible breadth of choral compositions by these women, with works from Sweet Honey in the Rock legend Ysaye Barnwell and concept pieces like "Sing On" by Gwyneth Walker. This concert is not only important socially, but is full of truly incredible compositions.

For this concert, CoroAllegro will partner with the Fund for Women, which since 1993 has awarded over $2.3 million in grants to local nonprofits that benefit women and girls in Delaware.

Saturday, April 6, at 5:00 p.m.
Winterthur Gardens

Seek Not Afar for Beauty: A Celebration of Nature's Wonder and Majesty in Song

With this concert, CoroAllegro invites our audience to explore the beauty of nature through all the senses, beginning with a tour of Winterthur, a 60-acre naturalistic garden designed by Henry Francis du Pont set amidst a 1000-acre preserve of rolling meadows and woodlands. As the gardens close at five o'clock, concert-goers will move into experiencing the wonder and majesty of nature through the music of CoroAllegro in the acoustically vibrant Copeland Hall.
